made, but soon settled down and the 203, Binkley 200. Mogula were in a fair way to win when a more serious accident happened. While Kesling was sliding to second base in the sixth inning, his right foot hit the bag with such force that the leg was broken above the ankle, one bone being broken. He was taken from the game and Johnson sent to right field and Lyons transferred to center.

The game went fairly well in spite of the accidents until the eighth inning when McArthur lost control again and six hits were made in rapid succession increasing the Vincennes runs to 10. The Moguls made one more in the ninth but were still short 8 to 10. To make matters worse Beasley knocked off a fingernail while warming up and worked Sunday with a very sore finger.

The team went to Dawson Sunday on a transfer losing money by small attendance and getting a defeat through the fatal error of Wilson, who threw the ball away at a criti cal time,
